BOARD OF TRADE MEETS

Number of Important Matters Considered by the Organization—Letter from the General Manager Read.

The West Side board of trade met last evening and as is customary at the meetings now a good deal of business was transacted. The board decided to renew the battle for the viaduct. The price street opening was discussed and the extending of Hyde Park street car lines was talked over.

Heddoe, Richard Nichols, Sarah Jeremiah, Martna Galling, John Morris, Philip Thomas, Caroline Miles, Thomas Hoderick, John S. Harris, James Lewis, Harry Goodball, John Thomas, Annie Marie, William Wagstaff, J. C. Moyer, D. W. Williams, Margaret Thomas, Will Pfeiffer, William Paas, Philip Thomas, Edward Collins, and Mrs. John Morris.

RICHARD PHILLIPS. Mr. Phillips has been elected as chorister at the Plymouth Congregational church, vice E. E. Evans, resigned. The new leader is a young man—but 24 years of age—and his future in the musical world is bright.

DEATH OF JOHN H. SMITH.

The death of John H. Smith, a well known resident, occurred at 10:30 o'clock last evening at his home, 1121 Washburn street. Death was due to heart failure, although Mr. Smith has been confined to his home with kidney trouble since last July. He died while sitting in a chair. He was 65 years of age and was well known as an engineer on the Jersey Central railroad, having been in charge of an engine for 31 years.

NOTICES OF DEATH.

The death of Miss Maggie Williams, aged 23 years, occurred yesterday morning at the family home on Pleasant street. The death is especially sorrowful, as the young woman was of a sweet disposition and had many friends. The funeral notice will be given later.

LOOKED OVER THE GROUND.

Only three members of the sewers and drains committee of select and common council met with City Engineer Joseph P. Phillips yesterday afternoon to go over the Luzerne street territory which is under discussion as to sewerage. They were Select Councilman Horatio T. Fellows, James Manley and Common Councilman W. J. Thomas. The matter was talked over by the gentlemen present and City Engineer Phillips will make an estimate of the cost of sewerage of the territory, in the different methods suggested.

NEWS IN NOTES.

The funeral of the late Patrick Rainey took place at 9 o'clock yesterday morning from St. Patrick's church. High mass was celebrated by Rev. P. McNally. The pallbearers were: Michael Moran, M. J. Durkin, John St. Manus, P. Brady, Peter McDonough and Daniel Canavan. Interment was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The West Side Wheelmen have their regular meeting Thursday night. Every member should be present.

Mrs. John M. Thomas, of Lafayette street, is seriously ill. She has been confined to her room for several days. Her condition is such that she is unable to get up.

WEBB RUN TO EARTH.

Fred Webb, of Peckville, is charged by his wife, Isabella, with desertion and making threats to kill her. A few days ago she caused a warrant for his arrest to be issued by Alderman Miller and since then Webb has been a much wanted man in that alderman's court.

THE FORTHCOMING SPECTACLE.

Ben Hur Will Be Produced at Frothingham, Jan. 21, 22 and 23. Much interest has been awakened in the forthcoming spectacular pantomime, "Ben Hur," which will be seen at the Frothingham on Jan. 21, 22 and 23 for the benefit of the Summer Home Fund of the Men's Guild of St. Luke's church. The Louisville Commercial says of the spectacle: "Louisville has never seen a more richly mounted spectacle than the story of 'Ben Hur,' as presented last night, under the patronage of the Woman's Confederate Monument association. And it is hardly possible that Macaulay's has ever held a more cultured, appreciative and fashionable audience."

Suburban News In General

PROVIDENCE.

A rally will be held Friday afternoon and evening at the Welsh Baptist church on Welsh street, to meet the auspices of the Young People's union of the Welsh Baptist churches of Northeastern Pennsylvania. A large number of delegates from Nanticoke, Plymouth, Wilkes-Barre, Parsons, Pittston, Taylor, Hyde Park, Olyphant and other places will be present. An excellent programme will be rendered. A number of ministers will be present and deliver short addresses on different subjects pertaining to the work of the union. The afternoon session will commence at 7 o'clock and the evening session at 7. At the evening session a banner will be presented to the union connected with the Baptist church of this place. The presentation speech will be made by J. M. Edwards, the president of the union, and will be accepted by John Twining, president of the Providence society. After the evening session a reception will be held in the church parlors.

Sidney Lewis, of Leggett's street, was painfully injured at the Storr's shaft Monday. Thomas McGuire, of Wales street, sustained a painfully crushed ankle yesterday afternoon while at his work in the Dickson shaft.

Rev. Dr. Taylor, of Canada, is visiting his son, P. Taylor, the North Main avenue dentist. Mrs. John Hall, of Wales street, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, is rapidly recovering.

George, the 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, of Wales street, is seriously ill with brain fever. Mr. and Mrs. Howell Powell desire to thank their many friends for their sympathy, assistance and kindness in the hour of their bereavement of their beloved daughter, Edith, especially the Junior Christian Endeavor society and the Band of Hope of the Welsh Congregational church, and the pupils of Mrs. Tierney's room of No. 25 school, all of which she was a member.

GREEN RIDGE.

The parlors of the Methodist Episcopal church were well filled Monday evening at the monthly social of the Epworth league of that church. The first hour was taken up in literary work. A short programme was then given and a collection was taken. The services were served. The programme was a recitation by Miss Jennie Miller; instrumental duet by Misses Edith Swingle and Ella Lidstone; recitation by Miss Gertrude Paatz; and a violin solo by Arthur Paul.

Miss Helen Mead, of East Market street, and Miss Mable Mallory, of Sunset avenue, returned this week from Wilkes-Barre, where they have been visiting friends.

Ray Greider has accepted a position as clerk in H. M. Cole's pharmacy, on Capouse avenue. Walter Tripp, a student of Keystone academy, Factoryville, is seriously ill at his home on Fordham street.

DUNMORE.

Miss Kate Benjamin, of Blakely street, has returned from a visit with friends in Elmhurst. The school board met in the high school building last night and held an adjourned meeting for the purpose of considering the report of the committee appointed to investigate the erection of buildings suitable for temporary schools. The buildings suggested in the last meeting were the Christian church on Tripp avenue, and the Horan and Healy building on Mill street.

LOCAL DEMOCRATS HONOR OLD HICKORY

Gold and Silver Fuse With the Loving Cup as a Crucible.

WESTMINSTER WAS THE SCENE

Dinner and Oratory Were the Mains. Representative Gathering of the Disciples of Jackson Eat, Drink and Make Merry in His Honor—The Tests of Toasts That Were and One That Was Not but Might Have Been—Who Made the Responses.

"Silver threads amongst the gold," with the substantive and object transposed would have been a fitting sentiment for the opening toast at last night's Jacksonian celebration at the Westminster, but the idea did not suggest itself to the committee of arrangements or if it did it didn't act upon it; at all events this very appropriate toast was not on the toast list.

There was a toast "The Union Democracy" by C. Ben Johnson, who substituted for State Chairman John M. Garman; Judge Gunster responded to the "Judiciary." Edward Merrifield director of the "The Ladies" and City Treasurer C. G. Boland had the subject "Just Wait Till Next Time" or as it appeared on the toast "1900." Nowhere, however, was there any allusion to what to a man on the fence would seem to be the most timely topic for discussion "Who is the Democratic Party?"

If the committee was a little at fault in its selection of toasts it was not so in its choice of speakers. Each of those enumerated above did full justice to the theme assigned and with the eloquent prophetic speech of County Chairman T. J. Jennings, chairman of the banquet, and the witty opening and happy introductions of the toastmaster, the eloquent and entertaining Colonel Frank J. Fitzsimmons, a most enjoyable evening of oratory and wit was enjoyed.

The first part of the evening's programme was in keeping with what followed and Landlord McBride has just cause to feel proud of his efforts as a caterer. The dinner comprised seven full courses and lacked nothing appropriate that the season affords. Lawrence's orchestra discoursed excellent music during the progress of the dinner and a collection was taken. The occasion was further enlivened by their merry melodies at intervals during the post prandial exercises. All in all it was a most enjoyable affair, a fitting celebration of Democracy's exemplar, the illustrious Andrew.

Those present were: T. J. Jennings, F. J. Fitzsimmons, Hon. F. W. Gunster, Edward Merrifield, Editor E. J. Lynett, of the Times; City Treasurer C. G. Boland, George S. Horn, Hon. John P. Quinn, C. Conroy, Hon. Lemuel American, M. J. Cadden, C. R. Pichler, L. J. Williams, Colonel H. Osthaus, D. B. Replogie, J. F. Roche, M. F. Conry, S. H. Sicker, W. A. Wilcox, R. J. Murray, P. J. Ruane, Hon. W. F. Sando, Hon. M. E. McDonald, Frank Thompson, A. P. Duffy, Mayor James G. Bailey, Joseph O'Brien, Hon. John P. Kelly, County Treasurer Charles H. Schadt, Charles J. Conroy, City Controller E. J. Robinson, Fred Kirchoff, County Commissioner John Demuth, Editor R. J. Beamish, of the Free Press; D. J. Reedy, secretary of county committee; Mrs. H. J. Morgan, J. Casey, William Kelly, Ben F. Castles, Chief of the Fire Department P. J. Hickey, Dr. John O'Malley, Patrick O'Boyle, M. J. Donahoe, John P. Mahon, William G. O'Malley, Alderman C. C. Donovan, M. F. Griffin, S. Sprinks, County Auditor W. Costello, John Gibbons, A. J. Kelly, John E. Gaffney, Ed. F. Blewitt, Common Councilman John Flanagan, A. F. O'Boyle, W. P. Boland, F. G. Parish, F. W. Warnke, C. Ben Johnson.

The actual cost of the church and lot is a little less than $200. A debt of about $180 rests on the said property. One purpose of this anniversary is to at least cancel the debt on the church.

In view of the foregoing modest statement, we believe, no more worthy cause appeals to the philanthropy of the people of this city than this one. And we do not for the cause of Christ and in the interest of righteousness, we could not presume even upon the charity of the public. But who dares appeal for aid because we are not ashamed of the cause we represent. How many of our generous citizens whom the Lord appointed stewards will come to our help? Because of the many similar appeals, we assure you we shall be grateful for any contributions, however small. We earnestly invite the public to our anniversary and solicit a hearty response to this appeal. Contributions may be sent to the undersigned, who will cheerfully acknowledge the same.

A Worthy Appeal. Editor of the Tribune. Sir—Zion Mission of the United Evangelical church will celebrate its third anniversary next Sunday, Jan. 18. This church is partially supported by the missionary society of the conference to which it belongs. It consists of some forty actual members, all of the laboring order. The several departments consist of a Sunday school, Keystone League of Christian Endeavor, a Junior society and a Ladies' Aid, all of which are rendering a most efficient service. The missionary contributions for this year will average at least $150 per member, and other benevolent collections will be accordingly liberal, and for all purposes will average no less than $10 per member.

GOOD FARCE COMEDY.

Entertained a Large Audience at the Frothingham Last Night. "A Railroad Ticket" one of the most popular farce comedies that visits Scranton entertained a large audience at the Frothingham last night.

The stars of the company this year are Louis Wesley and Miss Marie Stuart, although Arthur Moulton, who has been with the farce for several years, is as clever as ever.

There are a number of good specialties introduced during the progress of the farce. Miss Stuart, who has an imitation of some of the French concert hall artists that was very well done.

A feature not down on the bills was the laughter of a man with a callopole-like voice who occupied a seat close to the logs on the west side of the house. In the last act he so aroused the risibilities of Mr. Wesley that the performance had to come to a standstill several times.
